

MATH PATHWAY

MATH 1332 (Contemporary Mathematics I) MATH 1342 (Statistics)

MATH 1332 and MATH 1342 are designed for students who will need quantitative and statistical reasoning skills in their future careers. These courses are designed to develop critical thinking skills, helping you to understand and question mathematics and data presented to you in your field or in everyday life.

Art and Communications Majors

Majors include:

Music, Communication, American Sign Language, English, History, Studio Art, and Graphic Design.

Jobs and career opportunities include:

Interpreter, Multimedia Specialist/Journalist, Community Relations, Graphic Designer, Photographers, and Digital Artist.

Interdisciplinary Majors

Majors include:

Nutrition, Fashion Merchandising, Hospitality Administration/Culinary Arts, Physical Education, Exercise Science, and Family Studies.

Jobs and career opportunities include:

Nutritionist, Dietician, Visual Merchandiser, Adoption Specialist, Athletic Coach, Fitness Coordinator, and Personal Trainer.

