7/9/2011 New Student Orientation

New Student Orientation is designed to assist students in making a positive adjustment to the college environment and university life. Orientation provides new students with a head start on a successful collegiate career at Lamar University.

STAIRSTEP students Christine Gartner, Josh McBride, William Ware, and Nick Lanning greeted new students and their parents and informed them of the opportunities that STAIRSTEP offers. On this occasion 23 students visited the STAIRSTEP booth and 6 students were very interested in the program and filled out requests to be contacted with more information.
