Deaf Studies
Deaf Education
June 2 - 16, 2018

6 Credits
DSDE 4350 - Interpreting and Tourism
DSDE 4351 - Classification of Structure
Activities
While visiting Barcelona and learning about the connection between the Spanish, Catalan, and American deaf communities, students will experience a real-world application of linguistic theories and historical references taught in the classroom. Excursions include visits to Gaudí’s la Sagrada Familia and Park Güell, Museu Picasso, Museu Nacional d’Art de Catalunya, the Montserrat monastery, and more.

Program Fee
$3,500 + Tuition & fees
Includes: International roundtrip airfare, accommodations, ground transportation, meals, excursions, museum entries, and international health insurance.

Contact
Prof. Zanthia Smith
zy smith@lamar.edu
Prof. Cain Chiasson
cain.chiasson@lamar.edu