WHERE & WHEN
May 13 - 22, 2018
St. Petersburg, Russia

Founded in 1703, St. Petersburg was built on a complex series of canals and islands and cut through by the great Neva River. St. Petersburg is known as the 'Venice of the North' because of the canals and beautiful architecture of the city's buildings. The city was also once the capital of imperial Russia.

Students will visit the Winter Palace, Yusupov Palace, Hermitage Museum, Russian Museum, Mariinsky Theater, the Church of Spilled Blood, and more.

WHY
Learn about the rich cultural and political history of the former Russian imperial capital

This program will survey over three centuries of rich visual culture including the paintings of Repin, Vrubel and Malevich, the sculpture of Falconet's Bronze Horseman, the architecture of Rastrelli, as well as the urbanism of the Nevsky Prospect, and the Palace Square.

Historically, St. Petersburg witnessed three great political upheavals: the reign of the Romanov Tsars, the rise of Communism with the Russian Revolution, and finally the fall of the Soviet Union.
