SPHS 4350/5350 - Community Engagement
Activities
While traveling to Liverpool, England, and Dublin, Ireland, students will participate in dementia-friendly community projects, exploring cultural commonalities and differences in community support for individuals diagnosed with dementia and their caregivers. Insight gained will provide a foundation for serving diverse communities with communication disorders related to dementia. An overnight excursion to Portstewart, Northern Ireland is included in the program, with stops to see Giant's Causeway, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and for a Black Cab tour of Belfast to learn about the 'Troubles.'

Program Fee
$3,400 + LU Tuition and Fees
Includes: Roundtrip international airfare, accommodations, ground transportation, excursions, training events, and international health insurance.
