Spanish in Sevilla

MAY 15 - JUNE 10, 2018

SPAN 2300
SPAN 4370
3 OR 6 CREDITS
Activities
Study Spanish in Sevilla, the capital of Spain's Andalucía region. Located in the south of the Peninsula, Andalucía provides an abundance of history, music, dance, architecture, literature, art, and folklore. It is the birthplace of Flamenco, and the home of three UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Take language courses while living with local families, and experience a rich array of cultural activities, including a Flamenco show and a Spanish cooking lesson, as well as excursions to Madrid, Córdoba, Itálica, and Granada. This is a program designed to help you enhance your language skills and prepare for today’s global workforce, while also learning about art and folklore of Andalucía - the land of enchantment. Students will have the option to take one or both courses offered.

Program Fee
$3,000 + Airfare + Tuition & Fees
Includes: Accommodations, ground transportation, some meals, excursions to Madrid, Córdoba, Itálica, & Granada, a Flamenco show, a Spanish cooking class, & international health insurance.

Contact
Dr. Catalina Castillon
castillon@lamar.edu

Office of Study Abroad: John Gray Center, Herman Illes Building A, Room 108A
Website: www.lamar.edu/studyabroad | Email: studyabroad@lamar.edu