Your Future
Economics is the study of the production and consumption of goods and the transfer of wealth to produce and obtain those goods. Economics explains how people interact within markets to get what they want or accomplish goals. It is also known as the science of wealth.

Career Opportunities
- Professors
- Lawyers
- Economic Consultants
- Government Employees
- Non-profit Employees
- Researchers
- Economists
- Research Analysts
- Cost Estimators
- Budget Analysts

What Classes Will You Take?
- Money and Principles
- Macro Economics
- Micro Economics
- International Trade
- Business Law
- Managerial Economics
- Business Communications
- Strategic Analysis

Degree Offered
Bachelor of Business Administration in Economics B.B.A.

Are You Law School Bound?
An analysis of scores on the LSAT test for law school admission reported for students who apply to at least one ABA-accredited law school shows economic majors earned relatively high mean LSAT scores.

Careers in law involve shaping economic decisions. Writing and interpreting contracts, supporting mergers and acquisitions, dealing with the tax system, addressing disputes of workers, landlords and vendors—all of these involve decisions with significant economic content and implications.

Participate in Research
Our students are active in undergraduate research and have been published in reputable journals nationwide.
Develop Your Professional Skills
Every core class offers a workshop for you to develop your professional skills. These workshops have given our students a competitive edge in the job market.

- Internships 101
- Building Your Résumé
- Time Management
- Speed Interviewing

Let Us Help You Pay
Our department has multiple scholarships available. Let us help you pay for your college education. Apply for business scholarships after acceptance to see all of our offerings.

Don’t Forget to Get Involved
Join active student organizations to make new friends who share your passion and build your professional network.

- Student Advisory Council to the Dean
- Beta Gamma Sigma

I’m ready to apply. What’s next?
You’ve made a great choice! You can easily apply by visiting lamar.edu/admissions.

Contact Us
Department of Economics & Finance business@lamar.edu
Galloway Building, Rm. 240
(409) 880-8647
lamar.edu/business

Lamar University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action educational institution.