Your Future

The Department of Educational Leadership in the College of Education and Human Development is ideal for students interested in becoming educational administrators and leaders within their communities.

All of our programs are offered 100 percent online and are led by dedicated faculty. Our department is a recognized leader in providing graduate studies in school and district administration, and we continue to prepare passionate, positive forerunners who can create lasting change within their chosen fields.

There’s never been a better time to earn a doctoral or master’s degree in education. The state of Texas alone has more than 9,200 schools and more than 1,200 school districts with a growing need for qualified administrators.

"I look at Lamar University as somewhat of an innovator because there are so many opportunities for anyone, no matter what their walk of life is, to continue their education and be a better person."

– DeMetrius McCall ’17, Ed.D.
Principal, CE King High School, Houston
