Your Future

The political science curriculum provides you with a broad understanding of political systems and the policy-making process and prepares you for a career in law, government service, teaching, business or journalism. The rigorous training in social scientific methodology equips you to be a part of the decision-making policy, influence the decision-making process and to produce empirical research about politics and its subfields.

Department outlook

The Department of Political Science at Lamar University offers programs of study that introduce:

- American politics
- International relations
- Comparative politics
- Public administration
- Public policy

Students who earn law degrees after attending LU have distinguished themselves as judges, legislators and in other public service areas.

Degrees and programs

Bachelor’s Degree (B.A. and B.S.)
Political Science

Graduate Degree
Master of Public Administration
Courses you will take

- American Constitutional Law
- Public Policy Formulation
- International Law and Institutions
- Politics of Western Democracies
- Advanced Research

Career opportunities

- Public Policy
- Government Service
- Public Administration
- Law

Build your network

Join our political science student organizations to make new friends who share your passion, build your professional network and develop leadership.

- Moot Court
- Pi Sigma Alpha
- Pre-law

I’m ready to apply.
What’s next?

You’ve made a great choice!
You can easily apply by visiting lamar.edu/admissions.

Contact Us

Department of Political Science

(409) 880-8538
lamar.edu/politicalscience

College of Arts & Sciences
Lamar University
Department of Political Science

Lamar University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action educational institution.