Financial Statement
Spring-Summer 2012

The following form is used to determine adequacy of financial support for international applicants seeking admission to the Lamar Language Institute (LLI). The United States government requires proof of sufficient financial resources from all university/institute applicants who are requesting an F-1 student visa or J-1 exchange visitor visa. To obtain F-1 or J-1 visas, applicants must provide Lamar University proof of adequate financial support. Only after receiving this proof can we issue the documents required by U.S. embassies for student and exchange visitor visas. Financial support may be obtained through a sponsor, personal funds, or family funds, and must be an original and currently dated document.

Please print of type (must be legible) complete application in English.
