UNIVERSITY PROPERTY/EQUIPMENT CHECKOUT

Department: _____

Lamar University maintains ownership of all University property/equipment. It must be returned daily, end of the semester, or period designated by the department or upon leaving Lamar University. By accepting this property/equipment, you agree to the following:

1. Property/equipment is intended for daily academic-related, university business, or administrative use in accordance with Lamar University Policies, Rules, and Regulations for students and faculty/staff.
2. Property/equipment issued to a Lamar University student, faculty, or staff may NOT be loaned or transferred to another individual.
3. Individuals are expected to be familiar with the use and care instructions for the property/equipment.
4. The property/equipment will be maintained in a safe, secure, and orderly manner.
5. For inventory or maintenance purposes, individuals must submit the property/equipment to the department upon request. Failure to do so will result in a hold being placed on the student's account for the amount of the property/equipment until it is returned or Lamar University is reimbursed for the cost of the property/equipment. Failure by faculty or staff will be reported to Lamar University's Cash Management department.
6. Loss or damage to the property/equipment beyond normal wear and tear is the responsibility of the individual, and should be reported immediately to the department. Contact Property Management to make payment arrangements for repair or acquisition/replacement cost. The department is responsible for submitting a Missing, Damaged, or Stolen Property Investigation Report to Property Management.
