

Your rights as a student receiving Financial Aid

You have the right to know the following:

What Financial Aid programs are available at Lamar University

Deadlines for submitting applications for each of the financial aid programs available

How your financial aid will be disbursed

How your financial need was determined

How much of your financial need, as determined by the school, has been met

The school's refund policy

What portion of your financial aid is gift aid and what must be repaid. If the aid is a loan, you have a right to know the interest rate, repayment amount and procedures, length of time to repay and when repayment begins.

How the college determines if you are making Satisfactory Academic Progress

You have the right to accept, decline, or seek adjustments to your financial aid package

Your Responsibilities as an Applicant:

Complete all application forms accurately and submit them on time to proper office

Provide accurate information

Submit all additional documentation, verification, corrections and /or new information requested by either the financial aid office or the federal processing agency to which you submitted your application

Read and understand all forms that you sign

Abide by all forms that you sign

Perform the work agreed upon in accepting Federal Work Study

Report name and school enrollment status changes to the financial aid office and to the lender of any educational loan you receive

Provide our office with notification if you will be graduating at the end of a Fall semester

Contact our office if you do not receive information in a timely manner

Read and understand all information provided here