

History - 4 Year Degree Plan

2025-2026

Lamar University's Bachelor of Arts in History allows you to discover trends and patterns as you explore historical development from pre-history to the present. This program will develop your skills in critical thinking, research, writing, argumentation and documentation. The coursework includes American history, world history, government, etc. This degree can be a stepping stone into your graduate degree. Areas of study for graduate studies include history, historic preservation, law or political science.

NOTE: Degree plans may change over a four-year period. This may not be the most current list of course requirements for your program. It is always advised that you check Degree Audit in Banner Self-Serv or your advisor for the most up-to-date degree requirements and to track your progress toward a degree.
