"I AM THANKFUL AND PROUD TO GROW INTO MY VALUES AT LU."

Lamar University has offered me various opportunities to be a part of different experiences. I've embedded myself into the campus community and have gained caring and supportive friends, mentors, and peers. Along with my friends and classmates, my intellectual growth can be credited to the smaller class sizes and to the dedicated professors that care about my future. Through LU, I have gained research experiences through a grant that has allowed me to network and hone the skills for my future success.
