Your Future

Students graduating with a degree in General Studies are provided with a broad based program of study, you can tailor a degree plan for personal enrichment through study in those academic areas in which you have a special interest. For individuals who are already established in a career, this degree can enhance opportunities for advancement. For others earning the BGS is simply a lifelong personal goal of obtaining a four-year college degree.

The Bachelor of General Studies Degree provides you the opportunity for an individualized plan of study in more than one area of interest, resulting in a broad multi-disciplinary program of study. LU offers this degree both as a 15-week on-campus or online program and an accelerated, 8-week online program.
