THE GALAPAGOS ISLANDS – WESTERN ITINERARY

Feel the thrill of encountering the flora and fauna that famously inspired Darwin—and in his footsteps, generations of nature lovers. Undiscovered by Europeans until the 16th century, the Galapagos Islands hold a central position in modern scientific and evolutionary history. In a place where human presence is relatively minimal, take the opportunity to observe and photograph these remarkable species up close—either sitting quietly to watch blue-footed boobies or snorkeling with inquisitive and playful sea lions.

Dear Lamar University Alumni & Friends,

Join fellow alumni and friends as we explore the Galapagos Islands. Designated the first UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1978, the Galapagos Islands have been described as a “unique living museum and showcase of evolution.” They are home to a fascinating array of wildlife inhabiting an unspoiled ecosystem, living in harmony with their human visitors.

This exciting journey features a day of guided touring in Quito plus an intimate cruise through the archipelago with up-close access to endemic species. Expert naturalists guide you through the wonders of this national park, whale sanctuary, and marine reserve.

Accommodations for this adventure are aboard the Isabela II, a 40-guest vessel with spacious cabins, local cuisine, and a staff dedicated to ensuring both your comfort and maximum enjoyment of this truly extraordinary destination and its diverse inhabitants. And sailing by small ship allows for flexibility in the itinerary to maximize wildlife viewing, as well as access to exclusive ports.

Stateroom availability is limited. With significant savings of up to $1,000 per couple, we anticipate this tour will fill quickly, so be certain to reserve your spot today.

Reserve today online at lamar.orbridge.com, by phone at (866) 639-0079 or by returning the enclosed reservation form. To learn more about the Cardinal Adventures travel program, visit lamar.edu/cardinaladventures. Let's explore the world together!

In the afternoon, head to the Casa del Alabado Archaeological Museum inside a restored 17th-century colonial mansion to view its collection of pre-Columbian art. This evening, gather with traveling companions for a welcome reception and prepare for your upcoming adventure.

Overnight: Casa Gangotena – Quito (B,L,R)

Day 3: Quito / Flight to Baltra / Santa Cruz: Highlands / Puerto Ayora – Embarkation

Thursday, October 26, 2023

Arrive by plane to Baltra Airport and transfer to the Itabaca Channel to ferry across to Santa Cruz Island. After a short, scenic drive across Santa Cruz Island, arrive in the Highlands to enjoy lunch.

Later, visit the Charles Darwin Research Station and the Giant Tortoise Breeding Center to gain an understanding of the extensive conservation efforts that have gone into maintaining and improving the environment and biodiversity in this remarkable archipelago. See the Galapagos giant tortoise up close and learn about the various stages of tortoise care and development, including a visit to the baby tortoise house.

Take a late afternoon stroll along the main street of Puerto Ayora before embarking on Isabela II.

Join the captain this evening for a cocktail and briefing on the exciting activities to come.
Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

Day 4: Bartolomé / Santiago: Sullivan Bay

Friday, October 27, 2023

One of today's highlights includes a panoramic view of the Galapagos from a special vantage point—an overlook atop Bartolomé Island. On a pristine day, more than 10 islands can be seen from this viewpoint. After the morning hike, examine the environment by snorkeling or by glass-bottom boat.

Return to the beach to board a panga for a cruise around Pinnacle Rock, formed by an eroded tuff-stone cone—light limestone created by the accumulation of small volcanic elements. Pinnacle Rock is home for a small colony of flightless Galapagos penguins that share the area with sea lions and other marine birds.

After lunch, explore Sullivan Bay on the east coast of Santiago Island, featuring a white coral sand beach that's ideal for swimming. This location has some of the best snorkeling within the archipelago. See and feel the volcanic origin of Galapagos by traversing the walking trail across a lava field that flowed here in 1897.

Tonight after dinner (conditions permitting), look up and experience the enchantment of stargazing.

Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

Day 5: Santa Cruz: Dragon Hill / Santiago: Buccaneer Cove

Saturday, October 28, 2023

The island of Santa Cruz is the only one with six different vegetation zones. Pit craters, Scalesia forest, cacti, and ferns are found here. After breakfast, set off on a walk, passing a lagoon frequented by shorebirds, ducks, and American flamingos. Continuing inland, the trail offers a beautiful view of the bay and the western islands of the archipelago, as well as the chance of observing land iguanas. Afterward, snorkel from the shore in hopes of spotting rays and green turtles.

Later today, explore the coastline along the impressive cliffs of Buccaneer Cove, learning about the area's distant and recent history. Buccaneer Cove was used extensively by pirates, privateers, and whalers to set anchor and head ashore. It is home to a large number of marine birds, sea lions, and intertidal organisms. The geology is fascinating, with layers of compacted tuff volcanic material that, due to wave and wind action, has eroded into different forms and shapes. Enjoy fantastic natural formations, such as the "Elephant Rock," and an impressive natural cave.

Relish the available opportunities for snorkeling or relaxing with panga or glass-bottom boat rides.

Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

Day 6: Isabela: Punta Vicente Roca / Fernandina: Punta Espinoza

Sunday, October 29, 2023

Explore the captivating coast of Isabela Island by watercraft, seeking abundant wildlife, including colonies of Galapagos fur seals, the nesting sites of Nazca boobies, flightless cormorants, penguins, and marine iguanas. Depending on conditions, there may be a chance to snorkel along the cliffs, hopefully in the company of green sea turtles. Back on board, navigate along the Bolivar Channel, where nutrient-rich upwellings provide fertile fishing grounds for cetaceans.

Then visit the island of Fernandina, the youngest island of the archipelago and arguably one of the most pristine ecosystems on the planet. Punta Espinoza boasts an amazing combination of barren landscapes and abundant wildlife, all dominated by the lofty volcano at the heart of the island. Highlights to spot include hawks, penguins, huge numbers of marine iguanas, and the famous flightless cormorant, with its beguiling blue eyes.

Overnight: Isabela II (B,L,D)

The yacht Isabela II was the perfect size for our group. The entire staff was professional. The naturalists were at the core of our experience. Their extensive knowledge of the unique flora, fauna and marine life of each island was generously shared with us.

This program provided us with access to unique locations on our planet that should be preserved as they are but are made available to those interested in understanding the delicate nature of our ecosystems. The program was well planned, the guides excellent, accommodations first class."

—Nancy & Greg S., Kihei, HI

"My overall experience was outstanding and I would definitely go on an Orbridge tour again with no hesitation.

The hotels were exceptional and the food everywhere was outstanding. Also, the coordination and logistics were flawless. There were no hiccups or misses for the entirety of the trip. Guides for both Galapagos & Machu Picchu were absolutely top shelf in terms of knowledge and experience."

—Dan F., Spokane, WA

"This was a superb itinerary and was spectacularly organized. We loved the program. Mashpi was terrific, as was the entire trip in the Galapagos - the ship and crew were wonderful - the sights and itinerary were great as well. We thoroughly enjoyed it! Our transfers to Lima, and the trip throughout Peru, including the Machu Picchu trip, were terrific. All of our guides were wonderful. We learned so much and really enjoyed the program immensely. Spectacular!

We would like to travel to many places, but we will come back to Orbridge in the future."

—Linda E., Hanover, NH

The program was very well designed, well managed, and, above all else, had arrangements to meet our needs and objectives of our travel plan.

From day one to entering security for the trip home, I was well cared for and served.

—Tim J., Worcester, MA

"The seamlessness of the arrangements was a great value for this tour. There were many pieces of the tour that Orbridge fit together well. All of the guides in Ecuador and Peru were approachable making it easy to ask questions and have conversations instead of just being talked to.

The attention to detail and the knowledge of the guides exceeded our expectations. Every day was a new adventure to enjoy!"

—Shawn & Jeff H., Abington, PA

–Jon & Rebecca G., Hickory, NC

“It was spectacular at every level.

We loved the small boat - perfect size, the variety of opportunities available (each equally great, so at times hard to choose), the guides and staff who were so responsive and knowledgeable, and the logistics coordination - every detail was handled.

So remote and inaccessible that it was left untouched by the Spanish conquistadors, Machu Picchu was unknown to the outside world until Hiram Bingham rediscovered it in 1911. During your time in the Peruvian highlands, you will have a chance to explore the famous city of Cusco and the Sacred Valley of the Incas. Ride the train through the Urubamba Valley, marvel at the massive stone stairs at Ollantaytambo, and break bread in the home of a local Peruvian family outside of Cusco.

Itinerary:

Day 7: Depart Main Program from Quito to Lima, Peru

Monday, October 30, 2023

Depart Quito and arrive in Lima, Peru for an overnight.

Overnight: Wyndham Costa del Sol Lima Airport

Day 8: Lima / Cusco / Sacred Valley

Tuesday, October 31, 2023

This morning, fly east over the Central Andes' peaks and plateaus to the ancient capital of Cusco, Peru.

After arrival, meet the guide and transfer to the Sacred Valley. From harrowing mountain peaks and rural villages to roaming llamas and alpacas, the Sacred Valley of Peru is legendary. Photo stops are included along the way.

In the afternoon, have a late, light lunch with great views of the Sacred Valley. This 70-mile narrow strip of land in the Peruvian Andes runs roughly from the old imperial capital of Cusco to the enigmatic citadel of Machu Picchu.

Transfer to your hotel to refresh for tomorrow's exciting expedition to the heights of Peru—and into its past, when the largest empire in pre-Columbian America ruled the Andes and beyond.

Overnight: Sonesta Posadas del Inca – Yucay (B,L,D)

Day 9: Sacred Valley / Machu Picchu

Wednesday, November 1, 2023

After breakfast, make your way through the intimate cobblestone streets of Ollantaytambo, a "living" Inca town. Here, Inca descendants inhabit the largely unchanged homes of their ancestors and continue to maintain ancient customs and traditions. The massive fortress, perched among steep stone terraces carved into the hillside, is where the Inca won their greatest victory against the conquistadores.

Journey to the rail station to board the Vistadome train to Aguas Calientes, a town along the Urubamba River Valley that is a gateway to the Inca ruins of Machu Picchu.

Disembark the train for a bus ride up the mountain. Lunch will be at the Machu Picchu Sanctuary Lodge, followed by guided exploration of the ruins.

As it lies before you, learn about the archaeology and history of Intihuatana (the Sun Dial), the Sacred Plaza, and the Temple of the Sun, with plenty of time to wander, hike, and take pictures of the photogenic site.

Return to the village at the base of the mountain and then the hotel. Perhaps take a short stroll through the lush gardens at the hotel before dinner.

Overnight: Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel (B,L,D)

Day 10: Machu Picchu / Sacred Valley / Cusco

Thursday, November 2, 2023

After an early breakfast, experience the wonder of a quiet morning at Machu Picchu, imagining the sanctuary as it was centuries ago. Today have a more in-depth look at this amazing place and its surroundings by enjoying the sanctuary at your own pace.

Pause for lunch before returning to the Ollanta Station to begin the return to Cusco.

This evening, share impressions of your day while dining with your travel companions at a restaurant built with foundation stones of a colonial mansion.

Overnight: Aranwa Cusco Boutique Hotel (B,L,D)

Day 11: Cusco / Saqsayhuaman / Kenko / Villa Tipon / Cusco

Friday, November 3, 2023

Immersive excursions in Cusco this morning include visits to the colorful San Pedro market and Qorikancha (Temple of the Sun). From here, continue to Saqsayhuaman and the Kenko archaeological sites.

Relax with lunch at a private home and hear an informative discussion about modern Peru. Relish the opportunity to witness a traditional Pachamama ceremony.

The rest of the afternoon is for you to enjoy at leisure.

This evening, dine at a local restaurant offering exquisite Peruvian cuisine and a festive atmosphere.

Overnight: Aranwa Cusco Boutique Hotel (B,L,D)

Day 12: Cusco

Saturday, November 4, 2023

Today, discover the culture, food, history, and people of the magical city of Cusco!

Morning activities may include a visit with a historian or a stop at one of Cusco's intriguing museums. Visit with artisans who make Andean musical instruments or hats.

Did you know the instrument makers in Cusco are among the most skilled on the continent? This artful tradition goes back many generations. Instruments important to traditional Andean music include the guitar, violin, charango, manolin, banduria (a 16-stringed guitar played for carnival), recintu (a variation of the guitar), harps, and even drums.

In the Peruvian highlands, hats symbolize not just protection from the elements, but cultural identity, social class, age, and family professions. A red felt hat called a montera can be filled with flowers, fruit, and other adornments. These are worn by Quechua women throughout the Sacred Valley. When worn at an angle, it also may tell others she is a widow. Traditionally, brown or green hats made from sheep's wool indicate women of Andean heritage.

Dine at a local restaurant for lunch and delight in leisure time during the afternoon.

Explore Cusco's streets still flanked in places by Inca walls built with gigantic carved granite blocks. View the unique masonry up close to truly appreciate the astonishing perfection and mass of this true Inca marvel.

This evening, celebrate the rich rewards of your journey during a special farewell dinner.

Overnight: Aranwa Cusco Boutique Hotel (B,L,D)
