

Student's Waiver of Liability

Lamar University does not provide health or liability insurance coverage for Internship Students. If health and/or liability insurance coverage are required by the participating business it is the responsibility of the student to provide documentation of coverage.

I, _____ (student name) in consideration of being permitted to participate in this internship and recognizing the current educational and potential career value and professional experience that I will reap from it. I, on my own behalf of my heirs and estate or any other person claiming through me, hereby voluntarily waive, release, and hold harmless Lamar University, the Texas State University System, their regents, employees, instructors, volunteers, and agents [the released parties] from any loss, claim, liability, or damage arising out of the Internship Program. I intend this waiver to include any and all losses I may suffer including personal injury, property damage or death. I voluntarily intend this waiver to be broadly interpreted in favor of the released parties. Further, I intend hereby to waive any and all claims I may have that result from the ordinary negligence of the Released Parties.

I fully understand that by signing this form, I am

- a) giving up legal rights and/or remedies, that may be available to me for the ordinary negligence of Lamar University or any of the parties listed above; and
- b) accepting and assuming all personal and property risks inherent to the activities of said course(s).
