In Summer 2014, the Sociology program will offer two advance-level courses (6 hours) to provide students learning comparative social studies with cross-cultural experience. Students will take a 2-week field trip to Hong Kong, Macau, China during the class period to learn the culture of contemporary China.

The field trip will take students to visit various Chinese societies in Hong Kong, Macau, and Zhuhai, Guangzhou, Beijing in China. Also, students will visit Sun Yat-Sen University (SYSU) campus in China.

The travel cost will cover flights (international & domestic), local transportation, lodging, meals, visa, and an English-speaking translator.

Students who enrolled in classes are qualified for scholarship. And there is no language requirement for enrolling.

Join us for this unique, wonderful opportunity to learn more about Chinese society. For detailed information about the course content, trip plan, travel expenses, scholarship, and registration, please contact Dr. Chang at cchang2@lamar.edu (or visit her at Maes building, Rm 53).
