

Business Week 2022

Lamar University

Monday November 7th

Beyond Zero Location TBA, 6:00 – 8:30 pm with Q&A – MEET THE DIRECTOR!

See the feature-length documentary that chronicles the story of visionary leader Ray Anderson and his company, Interface, as they embarked on a high-stakes journey to become a 100% sustainable enterprise. Ray's heroic leadership serves as an inspiration for organizations at any stage and a call to action that ignites the human spirit.

BEYOND ZERO

Tuesday November 8th

Jim Boneau Guest Speaker in Landes Auditorium @ 12:45 PM

Jim Boneau is a 1988 graduate of Lamar University with a BBA in General Business with a concentration in Information Systems Management. His love for music also lead him to participate in the marching band and symphony during his time as a student. After graduating, he served for a variety of roles for companies and working in the MIS sector. He found his passion conducting training courses and realized his potential for helping with the development and growth of others.

Wednesday November 9th

Student Org Fair Galloway Lawn, 12:45 pm – 2 pm

Join us for fall fun on the Galloway Front Lawn in the Quad! Meet our college's student organizations, enter to win prizes, enjoy fall food, photo-ops, games, and more!

Thursday November 10th

YPB Mixer Time & Location TBA

Meet the College of Business' Young Professional Board in this fun and unique networking event. Door prizes and food will be provided!

Friday November 11th

Entrepreneurship Panel & Small Business Fair GB 127 12:45 pm – 1:45 pm & 2:00pm–3:30pm

Students are invited to participate in a panel discussion with College of Business alumni and local business owners about their journey as Entrepreneurs. Meet Dawanna Jones, David Pool, and Randy Edwards, local business owners. Directly following this event from 2:00 pm– 3:30pm students' small businesses will host a market style fair to sell their goods and market their services in the hallway outside of GB 127.

