Recovery and Resiliency: Building Tomorrow

April 17, 2019 - MCM Elegante

Preliminary Program

Outcomes

A. The participant will gather knowledge to adapt to, withstand, or more rapidly recover from a disaster or catastrophic event.
B. The participant will gain an understanding of methods to improve preparedness, communication, and coordination during a disaster/catastrophic event in Southeast Texas
C. The participant will explore options for disaster/catastrophic event community resources in Southeast Texas related to industry, governmental, or healthcare
D. The participant will begin a dialogue with other stakeholders to build a resilient community in Southeast Texas

Preliminary Schedule:

7:45-8:30- Registration- Continental Breakfast
830-845- Announcements, Welcome
8:45- 10:15- Keynote Speaker #1
10:15-10:30- Break, change rooms- coffee, sodas
1030-1130- Breakout sections- Industry, Government, Healthcare
(3 SPEAKERS IN EACH SECTION EACH BREAKOUT SECTION)
1130-1230- Lunch
1230-130- 2nd Keynote Speaker
130-230- Breakout sections- Industry, Government, Healthcare
230-245- Break- cookies
245-415- Panel Discussion- Industry, Government, Healthcare
415-430- Wrap up, evaluations

Continuing Education Credit will be available in Nursing, Social Work and Psychology