

Academic year 2024-2025

MED in Literacy Education - MED-AMLL Learning Outcomes

Student Learning Outcome #1

Candidates graduating from the Med in Literacy Leadership (Med in LL) program will be certified as reading Specialists in the state of Texas.

MEASURES	RESULTS	ACTIONS
SLO#1 Direct Measure All students graduating from the Med in LL program must pass the state Reading Specialist exam to be recommended for certification after graduation. Content on the Reading Specialist state exam is covered across student coursework. No candidate can be recommended for Texas Reading Specialist licensure without passing the required state exam. To assess how well the program is preparing students to graduate with certification, external and internal data will be collected and analyzed to identify gaps in the program: Internal data source: The program will collect data on student passing rates on the Certify Teach Reading Specialist (151) test from August 2024 to May, 2025. The Certify Teach test must be taken prior to graduation. After graduation and having taken the Certify Teach exam candidates would receive permission to register for the state Reading Specialist certification exam. External data source: The program will collect data on student passing rates on the state certification exam from August 2024 through May 2025. Content on state exams is covered across a student's coursework depending. All candidates in the Med in LL program will be certified as a Reading Specialist in the state of Texas. Through course work in the content area and a readiness assessment through the Lamar Proficiency Exam, 100% of candidates will take and pass their state TExES certification content exams. TExES Reading Specialist (151) exam: passing score of 240 on required certification exam. LPE exams: Passing score of 240 on all exams to received permission to take the state test. Direct - Exam (Certification/ Licensure) Target LPE: 80% of candidates will pass the Certify Teach exam on their first attempt with a score of 240 or higher. TExES Reading Specialist (151) Exam: 90% of candidates will receive a passing score of	NOT MET Analysis This program started in March 2024. No students have graduated yet. This goal cannot be met at this time. We should have our first graduate in the fall of 2025.	No actions have been added.

240 or greater on their first attempt at the state exam.
--	--	--

Student Learning Outcome #2

Candidates graduating from the Med Literacy Leadership program will be employed as reading specialist or other curriculum position within a school, district or region service center

MEASURES	RESULTS	ACTIONS
SLO #2 Collect data on graduates' employment immediately after graduation Obtain a Reading Specialist or other curriculum position and remain in that field at the three-year mark. Direct - Other Target 100% of candidates will obtain a teaching position upon graduation.	NOT MET Analysis This program began in March 2024. We have not had any gradates yet to measure this goal. We should be able to begin measuring this goal around summer of 2026.	No actions have been added.

Student Learning Outcome #3

All candidates will demonstrate mastery ILA standards in a practicum with students outside of their normal teaching experience.

MEASURES	RESULTS	ACTIONS
SLO #3 Students will earn a grade of 80% or higher on the practicum course that is outside of their current teaching scope. Direct - Assignment Practicum I Elementary Pops: PEDG 5306 Target All candidates will demonstrate mastery ILA standards in a practicum with students outside of their normal teaching experience.	MET Analysis The two secondary educators in the elementary populations practicum successfully met all ILA standards. The four elementary educators in the secondary populations practicum successfully met all ILA standards.	No actions have been added.