Mission

To better prepare the port and marine terminal operating industry for the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead through advanced education and industry relevant research.

Academic year 2024-2025

MS in Port and Terminal Management - MS-MSPT Success Outcomes

Understand Port, terminal, and waterway issues and solutions.

Students should be able to understand port, terminal, and waterway issues and solutions in a global, economic, environmental, and societal context.

MEASURES	RESULTS	ACTIONS
Defense of Final Capstone Committee will grade each student during the Capstone defense. Direct - Number of Applications Target Demonstrate proficiency to a committee of CAPM professors. Potential outcomes: Pass; Pass with revisions; Fail.	MET Analysis First Capstone on creating a Federal Trade zone for a Port met all of the requirements of the committee. Note that this measure is also assessed in the exit interview and the candidate met all requirements needed to graduate.	No actions have been added.
Exit Interview Some of the other information that is assessed in the exit interview include efficacy of professors and applicability of course work. Direct - Number of Applications Target This measure assesses this outcome and also measures many other facets of the MS degree with an eye on continuous improvement.	MET Analysis Documentation is available in Port Management files upon request.	No actions have been added.

Effectively communicate port, terminal, and waterway solutions.

Students should be able to effectively communicate port, terminal, and waterway issues and solutions.

MEASURES	RESULTS	ACTIONS
Defense of Final Capstone Committee must pass the candidate. Direct - Number of Applications Target	MET Analysis Capstone documents available upon request. They are located in the Port management files.	No actions have been added.

Demonstrate proficiency to a committee of CAPM professors. Potential outcomes: Pass; Pass with revisions; Fail.
Exit Interview Direct - Number of Applications Target Outcome which is measured in Capstone is also measured along with other metrics for improvement of the MS degree during the exit interview.	MET Analysis Documented exit interviews are available in the Port Management files upon request.	No actions have been added.

Demonstrate knowledge of leadership and management principles. MET

Students should be able to demonstrate a knowledge of leadership and management principles and how they can be applied in port management and industry.

MEASURES	RESULTS	ACTIONS
Defense of Final Capstone project All Capstone defense scoring rubrics and guidance documents are available on request and they are stored and backed up in the Port Management files. Direct - Number of Applications Target Committee of Professors evaluate and grade. Potential outcomes are Pass; Pass with revisions; Fail	MET Analysis Student demonstrated proficiency in an innovative project that laid out guidance for how to develop and implement a Free trade zone in a port.	No actions have been added.
Exit Interview Proficiency is evaluated by a committee of professors. Outcomes include Pass, Fail with revisions, or Fail. Direct - Number of Applications Target Defense of Final Capstone	MET Analysis Student demonstrated great initiative and proficiency.	No actions have been added.

Demonstrate knowledge of port financial management principles. MET

Demonstrate knowledge of financial management and port property and asset management principles.

MEASURES	RESULTS	ACTIONS
Defense of Final Capstone Guidance documents, grading rubrics, and outcomes are stored in the Port Management files and available upon request. Direct - Number of Applications Target Committee of professors evaluate proficiency. Outcomes include Pass, Fail with revisions, or Fail.	MET Analysis Student demonstrated proficiency.	No actions have been added.
Exit Interview Direct - Number of Applications Target The candidate will demonstrate knowledge and proficiency of port financial management principles during there capstone and exit interview.	MET	No actions have been added.