

Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) seeks to promote an understanding of self-awareness, an ability to process experiences, to understand others, and make responsible decisions. When art is added to social-emotional learning practices, SEAL based instruction promotes the creative act of making and analyzing art from multiple perspectives.

SEAL LU SUMMER ART CAMP JULY 11-15, 2022

Preservice art education students will instruct campers in artmaking that explores themes of resiliency. Campers will create a series of artworks about personal, and community resiliency. The LU Summer Art Camp courses are designed to be concentrated and active. Each course will be taught by art and art education students from Lamar University.

ATTENDANCE IS FREE LIMITED TO 25 PARTICIPANTS

Open to high school students including entering freshmen, ages 13 and up.

FOR MORE INFORMATION and to ENROLL:
Go to the Lamar summer camp webpage
<https://www.lamar.edu/summer-camps/index.html>
and fill out the necessary documents.

Funding Provided by Center for Resiliency at Lamar University. Please contact jhyatt2@lamar.edu for more information.

MON-FRIDAY* SCHEDULE
8:30 am to 12:30 pm

Morning drop off from 8:15-8:30 am in the circle drive in front of the Lamar Art Bldg.

MORNING SESSIONS | 8:30AM-12:30PM
AFTERNOON PICK UP from 12:30 - 12:45 pm in the circle drive in front of the Lamar Art Bldg.

Art projects include:

- Drawing superheroes, and creating three-dimensional figures
- Creating a game based on mutant superheroes
- Painting watercolor coastal scenes
- Printmaking on t-shirts
- Constructing 3D environments
- Creating a collaborative mosaic

At the end of the 5 day experience, the resulting artworks created by SEAL Art Camp participants will be featured in a pop-up art exhibition on July 15th at the Dishman Art Museum.