

F-1 STUDENT'S ADDRESS NOTIFICATION ECONOMIC HARDSHIP APPLICATION

As of October 27, 2003, the United States Citizenship & Immigration Service are requiring all F-1 students that are applying for Economic Hardship (EH) to complete Form I-765 with their University's International Office address (see sample of Form I-765).

I fully understand that I must complete Form I-765 showing the University's International Office address and that I must supply the International Office my official mailing and/or email address in order for the International Office to contact me about my EH petition and/or Employment Authorization Document (EAD).

If I completed and submitted Form I-765 with supporting documents to the International Office prior to the above date, I understand that the address that I listed on this form was changed to: c/o Qhleg"qh"KpvtpcvkpcnUwf gpv'Rtqi tco u" cpf "Ugtxlegu."PO Box 10078, Beaumont, TX 77710. The International Office will forward all correspondence & the EAD card to my official mailing and email address which is as follows:
