 - Concern for specific student learning outcomes: SACSCOC do not track student learning objectives by grades scored in a course.
 - Grade distribution, hours spent on tutorials, time to completion, attitudes measuring focus groups, marketable skills (60 x 30) are great but not sufficient for SACSCOC assessment.

 - ALEKS 360 measures time spent on task, and additional resources used. ALEKS 360 will be used in only one quarter of classes from Fall.
 - Discussion about taking the core assessment rubric and applying it to the QEP.
- Notes
 - It is required to review assignments used in past core assessments before applying them it to the QEP.
 - Dr. Alm to request for general assignments from assistant professor in charge of collecting core assessment information from math department next week. Dr. Alm to be granted access to Weave software by Jerrod also.
