A Blast from the Past!

Here is a great picture of a past celebration of the holidays at Gladys City. Does anyone recognize people in the picture? If you know, write the museum at gladyscityinfo@gmail.com. Also, join us on December 9 to make new memories at Gladys City.

In this issue:

- What’s Happening
- A Blast from the Past
- Building Sponsor Spotlight
- 117th Anniversary of Spindletop
- New Gladys City Employee
- Gladys City’s Penny Pincher
- Our Online Presence

New Gladys City Employee

The museum hired Hannah Colletti for its Collection Care Specialist. Hannah is a recent graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University but her work and volunteered at Gladys City for several years. Hannah had been a student intern at the D. M. McFaddin-Ward House. If you would like to help Hannah with the collections, call the museum at 409.880.1700.

Did you know Gladys City has a Penny Pinching machine? Did you know these machines have been around since 1893? The oil workers at Spindletop probably heard or even seen a machine like this. They debuted at the 1893 World’s Fair in Chicago. At the museum, you can now buy the souvenir books or even a bracelet or necklace to put your Spindletop penny in!
