EMILY ROBINSON
Student Spotlight

Hi, hello, hey, my name is Emily Robinson and I am a junior English major here at Lamar University. I am currently working as a peer mentor for Cardinal Communities’ “Get Your Red On” community, where we create a fun environment that encourages involvement on campus! I am also working with the Department of New Student and Leadership Programs, and I am a Director of Programming for Lamar’s Big Event!

Fun Fact: My favorite meal is the chicken nugget meal (with large fries and a Dr. Pepper) from McDonald’s; I was hungry while writing this. :)

CARDINAL COMMUNITY COALITION

Cardinal Communities meets with representatives from each college on campus. Our mission is to evaluate our current program offerings and develop plans to meet the needs of our campus and as many freshmen students as possible, in the best way possible.

FALL 2019 NEWSLETTER  WHAT’S UP WITH CC?

Semester events:
• Whose Line Is It, Anyway? (adapted from the hit TV show)
• Popcorn and Pajamas ft. Disney’s Lion King will be on 11/15 at 6pm.

Other news:
• 50% of the fall enrolled freshman class is participating in CC.
• We are offering 42 CCs and Living Learning Communities this fall.
  • We have a total of 25 new pro and peer mentors!

IMTPC CERTIFICATION

Cardinal Communities is seeking the International Mentor Training Program Certification (IMTPC) from the College Reading And Learning Association (CRLA). By attending workshops and trainings required for the certification, our CC mentors will participate in the processes of engaging, assisting, and learning by discussing training topics and through hands-on activities.

IMTPC benefits:
• CRLA certification provides recognition for tutors’ and mentors’ successful work
• Certification sets professional standards of skill and training for tutors and mentors
