Speech & Hearing Science in Costa Rica
May 18 - 27, 2018
SPHS 4350 / 5350 / 6360
About the Program
The main objective of this course is to provide theoretical and practical knowledge about self-management of people with speech and hearing disorders. The study abroad program will be offered in collaboration with Clínicas de la Audición CDA S.A. and the University of Santa Paula in San José, Costa Rica. The institutes have strong relationships with the community and have significant experience offering services for people with communication disorders. On the weekends, students will get to experience the natural beauty of Costa Rica during visits to Arenal Volcano, Baldi Hot Springs, and Manuel Antonio National Park.
