ABOUT THE PROGRAM

This course will be taught at Beppu University and will utilize the studio spaces in the Department of Literature, which includes facilities for fine art and design courses. Additionally, the course will be taught at specific sites in Tokyo, Kyoto, and Nara. Unique cultural activities in Beppu will include visiting Bungotakada to see a Medieval Japanese landscape and wear clothing from the period, rice planting, and learning about various Japanese art styles, including Ink Painting, Manga, and Animation. Throughout the journey, students will draw in response to their experience in Japan. Suggested assignment plans will be provided for students with various levels of drawing experience – there are no art course prerequisites!
