Monday, November 13th

Explore Your Cajun Roots by Studying French in Canada
Meet Marie-Josée Lepage, Director of the Ecole de langue française et de culture québécoise at Université du Québec à Chicoutimi, and learn about exciting new semester and summer opportunities to study French in Québec, Canada. Courses available at all levels!

Where: Library, Room 702
When: 2:00 p.m.

DACA: Understanding and Protecting a Unique Component of LU’s Diversity
DACA protects undocumented immigrant youth who came to the United States when they were children. The commitment of DACA students to pursue their American dreams against overwhelming challenges has inspired universities, as well as politicians throughout the country to urge Congress to find a pathway that allows undocumented students to complete their education. DACA students are an important part of the Global Lamar family. Join us to learn about how they are enriching the communities of Southeast Texas and beyond.

Where: Landes Auditorium, Galloway Business Building
When: 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Tuesday, November 14th

Study Abroad Information Table
Stop by the information table to find out about all of the exciting opportunities available to you in 2018!

Where: In front of the entrance to the library
When: 12:00 - 2:00 p.m.

Charting the Canal: Student & Faculty Research from Study Abroad in Panama
Dr. Mahdi Safa led nine College of Business students to Panama in March 2017. Learn about the research conducted in the course and how study abroad has impacted the academic and professional lives of the students.

Where: Center for Innovation, Commercialization, and Entrepreneurship (CICE), Room 113B
When: 2:30 p.m.

Wednesday, November 15th

Study Abroad Information Table
Stop by the information table to find out about all of the exciting opportunities available to you in 2018!

Where: In front of the entrance to the library
When: 12:00 - 2:00 p.m.

Cardinals Return Home: A Student Panel on the Study Abroad Experience
Wonder what it’s like to study abroad? Hear directly from Reaud Honors College students about their experiences!

Where: Reaud Administration Building, Executive Event Room #120
When: 3:30 p.m.

International Film Night: Tlatelolco - Verano del 68
Two students fall in love during the controversial student movement in the months before the 1968 Mexico City Olympics. Introduction and context provided by Dr. Miguel Chavez, Department of History.

Where: Communication Building, Room 103
When: 6:35 p.m.

Thursday, November 16th

Lamar Language Fair
Ever wonder how your name would look written in Hangeul? Curious how to read and write Hindi? Come learn about languages with our international students!

Where: In front of the library
When: 12:00 - 2:00 p.m.